

AUSTRIANS AND ITALIANS IN 24-HOUR BATTLE ON WHOLE FRONT

ing from the angle in northern Galicia formed by the River San and Vistula, a section of territory which lies to the northwest of Przemyśl, as well as from the district around Kholm, in Russian Poland, about 100 miles to the south of Warsaw.

The victorious troops of the German allies were given an ovation when they entered Lemberg. The city is described as having been little damaged, with the exception of a big fire in the western part, where the Russians ignited some petroleum and benzene tanks, the railroad station, and a number of adjoining factories. The city apparently had not been touched by the artillery fire of the Russians and the Austrians.

Captured officers declare that even until very recently the fall of Lemberg had not been regarded as a remote possibility by the Russians. The fortifications of the city had been modernized by them in every way.

LONDON, June 24.—A despatch from Amsterdam to the Central News says that the Germans, following their victory in Galicia, have made preparations for another attempt to capture Warsaw.

According to this despatch, German troops from Galicia have been transferred to the Eastern front, west of Warsaw.

RUSSIANS CLAIM VICTORIES WON BY ARMIES IN RETREAT

WARSAW, June 24.—The Russians are retiring from Lemberg in good order. North of the city the Slav right wing has attacked the enemy's flank, wiping out three companies, and checking the enemy's attempt to press forward south of the city. In the southern Galicia, the Russians have made 1,000 prisoners in a recent battle and are threatening the right flank of the Austro-Germans moving toward Volhynia.

The War Office, though admitting the evacuation of Lemberg, asserted today that the Russian garrison slaughtered large Austrian forces in the final fight before the Galician capital. Few prisoners fell into the hands of the enemy and scarcely any mention supplies. On the contrary, the Russians, in their retreat, have surrounded and captured a number of small bodies of the enemy who pressed the Slav rear guard too closely.

A great battle has been fought along the River Sereth, in the southeast of Galicia. The Austrians are inflicting up reinforcements from the Chernivitz region. The Russians are estimated to have lost 10,000 men. The War Office is confident that a new Russian victory in the Stanislaw-Zolotopol district is about to be recorded.

"In the hands of the Dniester we drove the enemy out of the village of Unich," said an official statement issued at midnight. "Taking 1,000 prisoners. The Austro-Germans retired in the direction of Lissa."

Thus far the German operations in the region of Lemberg have asserted no apparent effect on the situation along the Dniester River. At only one point on this river, which for weeks marked the southeastern fighting front, have the Austro-Germans managed to establish themselves with any permanency on the right bank. Here in the region near Nizhny the Germans crossed the river, but according to details learned today of a severe battle at this point the Austro-Germans have been repulsed with heavy losses and compelled to retire many strongly fortified positions. They still maintain, however, their position on the right bank of the river.

On the front extending from the river to a line west of Kawa Ruska the Germans have been held, and so success in the Russian position is in evidence as a result of the Russian evacuation of Lemberg.

NO PASSPORT? CAN'T LAND.

Warning to Americans Who Prepare to Sail for Liverpool.

LONDON, June 24.—The American Consul at Liverpool this afternoon notified the Embassy here that in the future all Americans arriving at that port without passports will not be permitted to land.

Phone It!

The World accepts by phone "Lost" Ads. by day or night—The Ads. that scatter forth And work with all their might.

So if something you've lost, 4000 Berkman call—They'll bring it back if it Can be brought back at all.

If your "LOST & FOUND" ad. is printed in the Morning or Sunday World it will get a circulation in New York City greater than if published in the Herald, Times and Tribune ADDED TOGETHER

World Ads. Make Business and Household Chores Snap Lovely

GERMANS BOMBARD ARRAS; NEW BATTLES IN LORRAINE

No Let Up in the Cannonading to the North of Souchez.

SHELLS HIT HOSPITAL.

Several Nuns Reported Killed in an Institution at Arras.

PARIS, June 24.—(E. P. M.)—The French War Office this afternoon issued the following report:

"In the region to the north of Arras last night passed relatively calmly, if we except the territory to the north of Souchez, where the cannonading never ceased. The enemy bombarded Arras, the Hospital of the Holy Sacrament being particularly damaged. Some sisters and some of the nurses lost their lives."

"In front of Dompiere, to the west of Peronne, the explosion of a German mine was followed by a violent bombardment of our trenches. An attack on the part of the enemy, expected by a not numerous force, was easily checked by us."

"On the heights of the Meuse, at the Calonne trench, there has been no change in the situation. We are maintaining our positions in a portion of the second German line."

"In Lorraine, not far from Leizre, the enemy delivered a counter-attack. After a rather spirited engagement they were repulsed."

"On the rest of the front last night passed quietly."

"The number of prisoners made since June 14 in the region of the Meuse now amounts to 25 officers, 25 under-officers and 250 men."

ONE BROTHER FREED TO RUN BUSINESS AS TWO STAY IN JAIL

President, However, Makes Provision That Rabinovitch Must Go Back to Cell.

Isidor Rabinovitch, who was convicted with his brothers, Harry and Morris, of concealing the assets of the bankrupt firm of Rabinovitch Bros., dealers in soups at No. 180 Grand Street, was granted a respite today by President Wilson so that he can run the business while his brothers are in jail. The three were sentenced to fifteen months each in the penitentiary, and when his brothers have served their terms Isidor will go back to jail.

When United States Commissioner Shields took bail at $5,000 each in their cases before trial one of the brothers stepped up and said: "Oh, sir! Since the whole family is here, can't you make it a wholesale price?" But the commissioner didn't.

AMERICAN OIL SHIP SEIZED BY BRITISH

Prize Court Writ Against the Gargoylle, Which Reached Alexandria From New York.

LONDON, June 24 (12.02 P. M.).—A despatch from Alexandria, Egypt, to Lloyd's says a prize court writ has been issued against the American steamer Gargoylle.

The American tank steamer Gargoylle left New York May 11 for Alexandria. On her way out she was reported at Malta, May 31. The steamer belongs to the Vacuum Oil Company, and is of 4,488 gross tons. At the company's office here it was said today that the ship's captain had advised them by cable of her seizure several days ago but no reason has as yet been given by the British Government. The Gargoylle carried a cargo of bulk oil consigned to Alexandria.

Woman Writer Dead. WASHINGTON, June 24.—Mrs. Mathilda Cox Stevenson, a noted writer on ethnological subjects and for the last twenty-six years connected with the Bureau of American Ethnology of the Smithsonian Institution, died at Ocean Hill, Md., a suburb, today, aged sixty years. She was a native of San Augustine, Tex.

SAILING TO-DAY.

Kurak, Archangel. . . . . 2 P. M.
Halling Olav, Christiansand. . . . . 2 P. M.
City of Savannah, Savannah. . . . . 2 P. M.

Berlin Claims Capture of Trench on Eastern Slope of Lorette Hills.

BATTLE ON THE MEUSE.

Attacks of the French Are Reported Repulsed—Many Prisoners Taken.

BERLIN, June 24.—The War Office this afternoon gave out the following report:

"We drove the enemy out of a section of a trench on the eastern slope of the Lorette Hills which they captured recently. South of Souchez fighting continued with good results for our side. Our position in the Lorette Hills south of Neuville was maintained after stubborn hand-to-hand fighting in the face of a strong attack begun during the night."

"In the Meuse Hills there were further bitter engagements. We took 150 French prisoners. The enemy suffered heavy losses in two successful attacks."

"Operations against the hill at Bandedapt which we captured yesterday were repulsed. The numbers of prisoners was increased by fifty."

ONE MINUTE KISS? IT CAN'T BE DONE, DECLARES DOCTOR

(Continued from First Page.)

this afternoon in her apartment in the Bronx, No. 1720 Broadway. Meanwhile the trial was suspended. When Miss Tempest was called, previous to this interruption, she walked leisurely to the witness stand. She wore a smart, light blue silk walking dress, with eight-inch buttons, and a chic black velvet and straw hat. Her blonde hair displayed itself to great advantage. Her white-gloved hands tapped uneasily on the Judge's desk as she told her story. She spoke with an English accent and accounted for this by saying that she had spent many years in London. She smiled with every answer.

Mr. Steyer began his examination of Miss Tempest in this fashion:

Q. What is your business? A. Lingerie and tea gowns—the Miss Tempest Company, Inc. Incorporated for $50,000.

Q. Who is your president? A. Guy Schiffer has $500 worth of stock.

Q. Mr. Robertson interested with you? A. No.

Q. Did he ever give you any money? A. No.

Q. When did you meet Guy Schiffer? A. Eight or ten years ago.

Q. Do you know Mr. Spildort or Lillian Harris? A. No, sir.

Q. Know Freddy Burnham? A. Yes.

Q. Do you know Mr. Robertson? A. Yes. I've known him twelve or fourteen years.

Q. Ever kiss Mr. Robertson? A. Never in my life.

Q. Ever sit in the window of your apartment and kiss him? A. Never. That's outrageous.

Then Mr. Lange took the witness.

Q. You have known Mr. Robertson fourteen years and have never kissed him? A. Never.

Q. No half minute or minute kisses? A. Never kissed of any kind.

Q. Just a friendly, platonic kiss? A. None of them either.

Q. Do you know Jim Bell, stock broker? A. I don't know that I do.

Q. Don't you know that in January Mrs. Mildred Bell sued Jim Bell for divorce, naming you? A. Never heard of it until this case came up.

Q. Where did you meet Mr. Robertson? A. At Saratoga race track.

Q. How often have you seen him? A. Almost every day in the last two years.

Q. Call on you? A. Yes, he had tea with me. He got to be a nuisance, a pest. He was so lonely I felt sorry for him.

Q. After fourteen years' acquaintance you considered him a nuisance? A. Yes, but I didn't like to tell him so.

Q. How often did you go out motoring with him? A. As often as I was invited. I have used it alone, too.

Q. Are you too ill to kiss a man? A. I am a single woman. I have never had occasion to kiss any man in recent years.

Q. Not even Mr. Robertson? A. Not even him, good friend that he is.

Q. After fourteen years' acquaintance you considered him a nuisance? A. Yes, but I didn't like to tell him so.

Q. How often did you go out motoring with him? A. As often as I was invited. I have used it alone, too.

Q. Are you too ill to kiss a man? A. I am a single woman. I have never had occasion to kiss any man in recent years.

Q. Not even Mr. Robertson? A. Not even him, good friend that he is.

Q. After fourteen years' acquaintance you considered him a nuisance? A. Yes, but I didn't like to tell him so.

Q. How often did you go out motoring with him? A. As often as I was invited. I have used it alone, too.

Q. Are you too ill to kiss a man? A. I am a single woman. I have never had occasion to kiss any man in recent years.

Q. Not even Mr. Robertson? A. Not even him, good friend that he is.

Q. After fourteen years' acquaintance you considered him a nuisance? A. Yes, but I didn't like to tell him so.

Q. How often did you go out motoring with him? A. As often as I was invited. I have used it alone, too.

Q. Are you too ill to kiss a man? A. I am a single woman. I have never had occasion to kiss any man in recent years.

Q. Not even Mr. Robertson? A. Not even him, good friend that he is.

Q. After fourteen years' acquaintance you considered him a nuisance? A. Yes, but I didn't like to tell him so.

Q. How often did you go out motoring with him? A. As often as I was invited. I have used it alone, too.

Q. Are you too ill to kiss a man? A. I am a single woman. I have never had occasion to kiss any man in recent years.

Q. Not even Mr. Robertson? A. Not even him, good friend that he is.

Q. After fourteen years' acquaintance you considered him a nuisance? A. Yes, but I didn't like to tell him so.

Q. How often did you go out motoring with him? A. As often as I was invited. I have used it alone, too.

BERLIN TO PLEDGE SAFETY OF LIVES OF ALL NEUTRALS

Coming Note Will Make Concessions to Wilson in Interest of Humanity.

By Carl W. Ackerman.

BERLIN (via The Hague), (United Press), June 24.—Germany, in her reply to the second American note, will make important concessions in the interests of those "principles of humanity" for which President Wilson declared America was contending. This was the positive assurance I received today.

Germany may even give assurance that lives of all neutrals will be safeguarded. It is possible the German reply, now in the preliminary stages of formation, may suggest certain details.

MISS TEMPEST.

trade, in order that transportation of ammunition and other war materials from eastern harbors of the United States to Vladivostok, for the increasing Russian fighting strength, shall not suffer interruption. And over the Atlantic at the same time are voyaging from the United States fighting arsenals and ammunition depots, in order that the cries for help from Great Britain and France shall be silenced as soon as possible. And again, at the same time, President Wilson demands that a sure and unimpeded journey be guaranteed these floating arsenals."

GERMANS TORPEDO A BRITISH CRUISER

London Confirms Announcement Made in Berlin—Says Damages Were Slight.

BERLIN, via Wireless to Sayville, L. I., June 24.—A German submarine attacked a British armored cruiser, apparently of the Minotaur class, about 100 miles off the Firth of Forth last Sunday. The Admiralty announced today. A torpedo struck the ship but the extent of the damage was not ascertained.

LONDON, June 24.—The Finnish schooner Leo was torpedoed and sunk yesterday in the North Sea while en route to Canada. The crew was given an opportunity to take to a boat, the submarine towing the boat for three hours until a Danish mail steamer was sighted. The crew was then transferred from the mail steamer to a trawler and landed at Lerwick. The Leo is a small wooden vessel of 260 tons, owned by J. A. Malen and registered from the Finland port of Nyssad.

Seven fishing vessels known as drifters have been sunk by a German submarine off the coast of Scotland. Most of the crews of the fishing boats were saved.

The British Admiralty announced last night that a torpedo struck the cruiser Roxburgh in the North Sea Sunday night but that the damage was not serious and there were no casualties.

BERLIN, via Wireless to Sayville, L. I., June 24.—A German submarine attacked a British armored cruiser, apparently of the Minotaur class, about 100 miles off the Firth of Forth last Sunday. The Admiralty announced today. A torpedo struck the ship but the extent of the damage was not ascertained.

LONDON, June 24.—The Finnish schooner Leo was torpedoed and sunk yesterday in the North Sea while en route to Canada. The crew was given an opportunity to take to a boat, the submarine towing the boat for three hours until a Danish mail steamer was sighted. The crew was then transferred from the mail steamer to a trawler and landed at Lerwick. The Leo is a small wooden vessel of 260 tons, owned by J. A. Malen and registered from the Finland port of Nyssad.

Seven fishing vessels known as drifters have been sunk by a German submarine off the coast of Scotland. Most of the crews of the fishing boats were saved.

The British Admiralty announced last night that a torpedo struck the cruiser Roxburgh in the North Sea Sunday night but that the damage was not serious and there were no casualties.

BERLIN, via Wireless to Sayville, L. I., June 24.—A German submarine attacked a British armored cruiser, apparently of the Minotaur class, about 100 miles off the Firth of Forth last Sunday. The Admiralty announced today. A torpedo struck the ship but the extent of the damage was not ascertained.

LONDON, June 24.—The Finnish schooner Leo was torpedoed and sunk yesterday in the North Sea while en route to Canada. The crew was given an opportunity to take to a boat, the submarine towing the boat for three hours until a Danish mail steamer was sighted. The crew was then transferred from the mail steamer to a trawler and landed at Lerwick. The Leo is a small wooden vessel of 260 tons, owned by J. A. Malen and registered from the Finland port of Nyssad.

Seven fishing vessels known as drifters have been sunk by a German submarine off the coast of Scotland. Most of the crews of the fishing boats were saved.

The British Admiralty announced last night that a torpedo struck the cruiser Roxburgh in the North Sea Sunday night but that the damage was not serious and there were no casualties.

BERLIN, via Wireless to Sayville, L. I., June 24.—A German submarine attacked a British armored cruiser, apparently of the Minotaur class, about 100 miles off the Firth of Forth last Sunday. The Admiralty announced today. A torpedo struck the ship but the extent of the damage was not ascertained.

LONDON, June 24.—The Finnish schooner Leo was torpedoed and sunk yesterday in the North Sea while en route to Canada. The crew was given an opportunity to take to a boat, the submarine towing the boat for three hours until a Danish mail steamer was sighted. The crew was then transferred from the mail steamer to a trawler and landed at Lerwick. The Leo is a small wooden vessel of 260 tons, owned by J. A. Malen and registered from the Finland port of Nyssad.

Seven fishing vessels known as drifters have been sunk by a German submarine off the coast of Scotland. Most of the crews of the fishing boats were saved.

The British Admiralty announced last night that a torpedo struck the cruiser Roxburgh in the North Sea Sunday night but that the damage was not serious and there were no casualties.

BERLIN, via Wireless to Sayville, L. I., June 24.—A German submarine attacked a British armored cruiser, apparently of the Minotaur class, about 100 miles off the Firth of Forth last Sunday. The Admiralty announced today. A torpedo struck the ship but the extent of the damage was not ascertained.

Woman Who Denies One-Minute Kiss Given to Man Sued for Divorce

MISS TEMPEST.

trade, in order that transportation of ammunition and other war materials from eastern harbors of the United States to Vladivostok, for the increasing Russian fighting strength, shall not suffer interruption. And over the Atlantic at the same time are voyaging from the United States fighting arsenals and ammunition depots, in order that the cries for help from Great Britain and France shall be silenced as soon as possible. And again, at the same time, President Wilson demands that a sure and unimpeded journey be guaranteed these floating arsenals."

GERMANS TORPEDO A BRITISH CRUISER

London Confirms Announcement Made in Berlin—Says Damages Were Slight.

BERLIN, via Wireless to Sayville, L. I., June 24.—A German submarine attacked a British armored cruiser, apparently of the Minotaur class, about 100 miles off the Firth of Forth last Sunday. The Admiralty announced today. A torpedo struck the ship but the extent of the damage was not ascertained.

LONDON, June 24.—The Finnish schooner Leo was torpedoed and sunk yesterday in the North Sea while en route to Canada. The crew was given an opportunity to take to a boat, the submarine towing the boat for three hours until a Danish mail steamer was sighted. The crew was then transferred from the mail steamer to a trawler and landed at Lerwick. The Leo is a small wooden vessel of 260 tons, owned by J. A. Malen and registered from the Finland port of Nyssad.

Seven fishing vessels known as drifters have been sunk by a German submarine off the coast of Scotland. Most of the crews of the fishing boats were saved.

The British Admiralty announced last night that a torpedo struck the cruiser Roxburgh in the North Sea Sunday night but that the damage was not serious and there were no casualties.

BERLIN, via Wireless to Sayville, L. I., June 24.—A German submarine attacked a British armored cruiser, apparently of the Minotaur class, about 100 miles off the Firth of Forth last Sunday. The Admiralty announced today. A torpedo struck the ship but the extent of the damage was not ascertained.

LONDON, June 24.—The Finnish schooner Leo was torpedoed and sunk yesterday in the North Sea while en route to Canada. The crew was given an opportunity to take to a boat, the submarine towing the boat for three hours until a Danish mail steamer was sighted. The crew was then transferred from the mail steamer to a trawler and landed at Lerwick. The Leo is a small wooden vessel of 260 tons, owned by J. A. Malen and registered from the Finland port of Nyssad.

Seven fishing vessels known as drifters have been sunk by a German submarine off the coast of Scotland. Most of the crews of the fishing boats were saved.

The British Admiralty announced last night that a torpedo struck the cruiser Roxburgh in the North Sea Sunday night but that the damage was not serious and there were no casualties.

BERLIN, via Wireless to Sayville, L. I., June 24.—A German submarine attacked a British armored cruiser, apparently of the Minotaur class, about 100 miles off the Firth of Forth last Sunday. The Admiralty announced today. A torpedo struck the ship but the extent of the damage was not ascertained.

LONDON, June 24.—The Finnish schooner Leo was torpedoed and sunk yesterday in the North Sea while en route to Canada. The crew was given an opportunity to take to a boat, the submarine towing the boat for three hours until a Danish mail steamer was sighted. The crew was then transferred from the mail steamer to a trawler and landed at Lerwick. The Leo is a small wooden vessel of 260 tons, owned by J. A. Malen and registered from the Finland port of Nyssad.

Seven fishing vessels known as drifters have been sunk by a German submarine off the coast of Scotland. Most of the crews of the fishing boats were saved.

The British Admiralty announced last night that a torpedo struck the cruiser Roxburgh in the North Sea Sunday night but that the damage was not serious and there were no casualties.

BERLIN, via Wireless to Sayville, L. I., June 24.—A German submarine attacked a British armored cruiser, apparently of the Minotaur class, about 100 miles off the Firth of Forth last Sunday. The Admiralty announced today. A torpedo struck the ship but the extent of the damage was not ascertained.

LONDON, June 24.—The Finnish schooner Leo was torpedoed and sunk yesterday in the North Sea while en route to Canada. The crew was given an opportunity to take to a boat, the submarine towing the boat for three hours until a Danish mail steamer was sighted. The crew was then transferred from the mail steamer to a trawler and landed at Lerwick. The Leo is a small wooden vessel of 260 tons, owned by J. A. Malen and registered from the Finland port of Nyssad.

Seven fishing vessels known as drifters have been sunk by a German submarine off the coast of Scotland. Most of the crews of the fishing boats were saved.

The British Admiralty announced last night that a torpedo struck the cruiser Roxburgh in the North Sea Sunday night but that the damage was not serious and there were no casualties.

BERLIN, via Wireless to Sayville, L. I., June 24.—A German submarine attacked a British armored cruiser, apparently of the Minotaur class, about 100 miles off the Firth of Forth last Sunday. The Admiralty announced today. A torpedo struck the ship but the extent of the damage was not ascertained.

AUSTRIANS SHELL ITALIANS ALL ALONG ISONZO RIVER

Intense Artillery Battle Lasts for Twenty-Four Hours in Mountain Passes.

ROME CLAIMS SUCCESS.

Official Reports Declare That Every Attack Has Been Repulsed.

ROME, June 24.—An intense artillery battle has developed along the entire Austro-Italian front. The enemy has been shelling Italian positions in the mountain districts and along the Isonzo for twenty-four hours. Italian guns are replying with great vigor.

Gen. Cadorna reported today that enemy infantry has attacked at several points, principally at night, but has everywhere been repulsed. Particularly violent attacks were delivered in the regions of Monte Piano, Val Grande, Val Piccolo and Freikofel.

"During the night of June 21-22 and continuing the following day," says the report, "the enemy made three desperate attacks against our position at Freikofel. All these attacks were repulsed successfully by the splendid fire of our artillery and the use of hand grenades. The enemy left two hundred bodies on the battlefield."

"In the Bay of Piave preparations are being made by the Austrians for the installation of heavy artillery and along the neighboring heights convoys have been seen going from Piave toward the Upper Isonzo."

"In the Monte Nero region and along the Isonzo the day of June 23 passed quietly."

VIENNA (via Berlin wireless), June 24.—The War Office, in a review of the results of the first month of the Austro-Italian war, declared today that Italy has failed to accomplish anything of importance.

"Our troops in the southwest maintain their positions on or near the frontier," it was stated.

No More Boxing in Michigan. LANSING, Mich., June 24.—Gov. Ferris today put an end to boxing matches in this State when he sent letters to the Sheriff of each of the eighty-three counties informing them of the law against glove contests and requesting them to see that the statute is enforced. During the last four years the boxing game has flourished in several Michigan cities.

DIED. BOND.—On Friday, June 19, 1918, RALPH IRVING, beloved and only son of P. Irving Bond and the late Florence M. Bond.

All those who loved him are invited to attend services at Fairchild Memorial Parlor, 88 Lafayette Place, near Grand st., Brooklyn, Thursday, June 26, at 2 P. M.

DOUGLAS.—Suddenly, on June 23, MRS. MARGARET MEIGS DOUGLAS.

Federal services at Westchester's Chapel, 10 W. 47th st., New York City, at 10 o'clock Friday morning, June 26. Interment private.

DOUGLAS.—Suddenly, on June 23, MRS. MARGARET MEIGS DOUGLAS.

Federal services at Westchester's Chapel, 10 W. 47th st., New York City, at 10 o'clock Friday morning, June 26. Interment private.

DOUGLAS.—Suddenly, on June 23, MRS. MARGARET MEIGS DOUGLAS.

Federal services at Westchester's Chapel, 10 W. 47th st., New York City, at 10 o'clock Friday morning, June 26. Interment private.

DOUGLAS.—Suddenly, on June 23, MRS. MARGARET MEIGS DOUGLAS.

Federal services at Westchester's Chapel, 10 W. 47th st., New York City, at 10 o'clock Friday morning, June 26. Interment private.

DOUGLAS.—Suddenly, on June 23, MRS. MARGARET MEIGS DOUGLAS.